

ONLINE
CONSULTATION

Inclusion of Children Affected by Migration in National Child Protection Systems

Dear Colleagues, Esteemed National Counterparts and Partners,

You are invited to an hour and a half online consultation on the Inclusion of Children Affected by Migration in National Child Protection Systems.

This consultation seeks to provide recommendations that can be utilized by practitioners to advance our work on inclusion of children affected by migration in national child protection systems. The Consultant developing a technical note on this subject, Christina Torsein, will present initial findings. It is also an opportunity for you and others to share your reflections for the technical note based on your experience in this area.

We will hold two online consultations to accommodate different time zones and enable wide participation to review the initial findings to date and collect further considerations to inform the Technical Note being developed. Following the initial online consultations, in-depth interviews, mapping exercises, review of emerging practices, challenges and gaps, IOM and UNICEF will host a validation meeting in person.

To this end, IOM and UNICEF, we would like to invite you to participate in one of the two online consultations which will be held on the following dates and times:

Tuesday December 6 / Via Zoom

Register Now

6:00 EST / 12:00 CET / 14:00 EAT / 18:00 ICT

Wednesday December 7 / Via Zoom

Register Now

10:00 EST / 16:00 CET / 18:00 EAT / 22:00 ICT

The online consultation is open to all. Please feel free to share this invitation with key partners, notably government counterparts and implementing partners so that they can register too. You are welcome to host a viewing session at your office and join together.

Please register by clicking on the registration buttons above for the consultation you wish to join. A confirmation email with the Zoom link will then be sent to you.

Thank you for taking the time to engage and support this important process in advancing the inclusion of children affected by migration in national child protection systems.

We look forward to your participation.